WHICH SHALL BE SERVED?

The financial management of the government has been in view of the different departments, the highway and other departments have been great sums of money. In the government of President Taft's administration states to furnish press releases to men calling to see him. In order of his method, reducing the amount of money for the same period of time, he has now been reduced to a minimum.

MR. JEWELL AND THE PUBLIC

The railroad strike, in the opinion of Mr. Jewell, who speaks on behalf of the railroad men, should command the respect of the American people because they are orderly and well disciplined.

Because Mr. Newland has refused to support it in its present program. It seems to be a good cause, but the men who supported it have not yet been sufficiently settled in favor of the railroad men.

Mr. Jewell's speech was delivered before the House of Representatives, and it was voted down.

A strong case was made that the strike was a just cause, but the House of Representatives did not vote it down.

WHAT IS A DEMOCRAT?

The point really raised in the Missouri question is, What constitutes a Democrat? Mr. Reed insists that he is one. He tells his listeners that he is, was and always will be a Democrat. He asserts that his Democracy was the Simon-Pure brand before Mr. Wilson adulterated it, and that now he remains Simon-Pure Democrat without subscribing to the supplements or heresies proposed by the leaders of nations originally.

Mr. Reed, by his declaration, fastens the nation's attention upon his Missouri contest, for its result is likely to determine whether those articles are to be purged of Wilsonian heresy.

The question is: To be a Democrat nowadays, must a man subscribe to the covenant of the League of Nations, or does the Declaration upon which Governor Coolidge ran for the presidency in 1920 resemble the declaration for sixteen to one upon which Mr. Bryan ran in 1896? Is Wilsonism like Brahminism an expression of the Democratic principles, or is it to constitute a permanent addition to the Democratic faith?

FUNNY RETALIATION

British propagandists who are looking at their special business in America to oppose the American tariff bill tell us that England will "retaliate." England has already imposed the safeguard industries of imposing an average tariff of about 30 per cent.

Funny kind of "retaliation" that takes place in advance.

REAGAN'S SETTLEMENT

As near as we can get at Mr. Reagan's idea, the striking coal miners are quite ready to listen to reason as soon as all their demands are complied with.

THEIR NEVER DID IT

For a republican administration to make a remarkable saving is regarded as especially reprehensible by some of our democratic contemporaries.

THAT'S THE PURPOSE

Denial to the courts of the powers to declare any law unconstitutional as is proposed would amount to repeal of the constitution.

What makes Henry Ford so mad about the money expended by Senator Newberry's friends to assure the latter a seat in the senate, is that he spent so much more and didn't land it.

The bathing girl may not care what the wild waves are saying, but sometimes she likes to hear what the audience says.

New York journalist's wonderful. They got George Gould's wedding right except the date, place and name of the bride.

The main result of Lenin's illness is that the others get a chance to be interviewed now.

What this world needs is more hand working and less tongue wagging.

An extravagant man never grows rich by seeming to be a dadaire.
